· POLLOK TO PILOT

Hires a Press Agent and the first time that two fittess game ever have occurred in a double-header. Sallies Forth for Another Bout.

By TAD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Jack O'Brien, of Philadelphia, will blossom forth soon, ees now that he has been forgiven. The sporting public wants to see him

"I always thought that O'Brien was a great fighter," said Harry, "but after Jim Coffroth came East I was surer than ever that he was a big card. Corfroth told me that if there was one man in the world who had a chance with Ketchel, it was O'Brien. Jim said that with his cleverness and speed he had a chance of tiring out the Montana terror, and I begin to think so mysalf."

"I have three or four offers from dif-ferent local clubs, but I want to get Jack on with either Ketchel, Papke, or Langford before I let him go. They say that no one will meet this fellow Langford. Why, if he can do any sort of weight at all, I'll sign up to meet him in a minute. I think there'll be a change in the middleweight title if we get going, and you'll see him in the ring within the next month.'

HUNT CLUB RACE PIMLICO FEATURE

Good Crowd Braves Rain for United Hunts Meet-Washington Well Represented.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 28.-A large number of lovers of real sport braved the inclement weather yesterday to attend the opening of the rour days meeting of the United Hunts Club of Maryland at Pimlico.

went to the old track. The weather was squally all afternoon, and the cold wind that blew from the east sent a chill down the backs of the spectators as they watched the ponies splash through the mud in their efforts to reach the judges stand first.

The feature event was the preliminary Hunt Club event of two miles. When R. Nicholas dashed by the judges a winner in the event he was given an ovation by his friends in the grandstand. He rode the rank outsider Halidame, which made his victory the more popular.

NARY ONE BINGLE IN DOUBLE-HEADER

MARQUETTE, Mich., Aug. 28.—One of the most remarkable occurrences in the history of baseball took place at Mu-nising, when Frost, of Munising, and Goulette, of Ishpeming, each pitched a no-hit game. So far as known this is the first time that two hitless games Frost pitched the first game and won by a score of 12 to 0. In the second game Goulette turned the tables on the Munising players, shutting them out without a hit, Ishpeming winning, 3 to 0.
